A MOUSTACHE CUP PLEASE!

Once again Edward G. Robinson wears a moustache as the spectacular hero of "Silver Dollar," the First National picture which opens at the Ritz Theatre on Wednesday, Jan. 11, for three days.

As the star of "Tiger Shark," Robinson sported the trim, snappy moustache of a Portuguese sea captain.

In "Silver Dollar," he affects the long, sweeping moustache of the 1880's, without which no man was complete in that era. It was worn with a slight droop at the ends, and the popular term for this hirsute adornment was "dundrearys."

The cast includes Bebe Daniels, Aline MacMahon, Jobyna Howland, Berton Churchill and DeWitt Jennings. It was directed by Alfred E. Green.

BASKETBALL

The second half of the Class A basketball league will get away to a flying start this week with games being played on three nights.

The feature game on Monday night will be between Colonial Drug Co. and Ocoee at 9:30.

The feature game of the week and what promises to be the outstanding game of the second half will bring together the Florida Public Service and Jackson Sport Shop on Wednesday at 9:30. These two teams were two of the leading contenders of the first half and this promises to be a real battle.

The feature game for Friday night will be at 9:30 also when Ocoee will play the Rollins Independents.

TENNIS

The Central Florida Tournament which will bring some of the leading stars of the country will be held the first part of March.

On Saturday of this week a Tennis tournament will start for local players, the winner and runner-up of the first flight of this tournament bring the representatives for Orlando in the State Championship.

There will be two other flights which will take in all the rest of the tennis players of the city. A class B flight is to be played in the daytime and a class C flight to be played at night.

The first eight players on the tennis ladder must enter the first flight. Any of the other players can enter if they wish.

In the other flights all the other players on the ladder must enter the class B tournament while the rest of the players will enter the class C division.

Prizes will be given to the winners of each division.

Business, more business prompted Hoefler's Restaurant and Coffee Shop in the Ansonia Hotel to remove the large counter in order to allow for more table space. "Such popularity must be deserved" is the old adage that still holds true with Hoefler's. If you haven't enjoyed dinner at this attractive eating place, drop in tonight.

Celebrated Sports Writer
A Weekly Feature of the GREETER

"'Twas the night before pay-day
And all through my jeans,
I'd hunted in vain for the ways and the means;
Nothing was stirring, not even a "jit",
The silver was missing, the greenbacks were nit.
Backward, turn backward, Oh, Time in the flight
Make it tomorrow—just for to-night!"

Doggone the depression! Just when we had a fine fishing and duck-shooting trip nicely arranged—up pops the devil. The camp was located in another county necessitating state hunting licenses for three members of the party and a state license costs $8.50—$25.50 for the privilege of one or two day's ducking. No can do—especially when the three who lacked a license were working for a salary and the trip was planned the right before pay-day. The duck-shooting was declared out and we proceeded up the river for bass.

While on the subject, how about this damphool hunting and fishing license? ee that the sportsmen of Florida have been contributing to a lost cause ever since the organization of the Fish & Game Department? What benefits are we getting and what improvements have been made in the hunting and fishing that you know of. The lakes and the river are jammed with hyacinths that are ruining the bass fishing. There are no markers on the river that indicate channels from slues and about the only thing we get for our money are restrictions. The rattlesnakes have taken the fields and woods by storm until no man with sense will unleash a good bird dog in any county in the state—unless we have a decided cold spell that will route the snakes.

It's high time we sportsmen advocated a state wide license for Florida residents at a price commensurate with what we get. $1.00 is ample for the state wide fishing fee and not more than $3.00 for a state wide hunting license. We in-vegle out of state sportsmen to Florida to hunt and fish and then tax them $10.50 for a fishing license and $25.00 for a hunting license—regardless if their stay is for a week-end or for the season.

The former charge is out of line entirely and the latter is simply obtaining money under false pretenses. The result of the present license fees is that most men dodge and side-step or refuse to hunt or fish outside the county of their residence and as a matter of cold, frosty facts most of the time of the wardens is spent chasing fishermen and hunters to inspect their license.

If Governor Sholtz follows his determination to abolish the Department of Fresh Water Fish & Game it will be regarded as a calamity by many of the conservation theorists, and will doubtless destroy what little progress we have made in organizing a competent protective organization but if he reforms it he will have the support of every sportsman in the state. It's time to quit playing politics and get down to brass tacks if we are going to protect what few fish we have in the inland lakes and what little game is left today of the vast quantity we had only a few years back.

On and off

We're off!—Off to better days and happier new year to you to the places to go and tell you of the things to do. Fishing is good—politics are waxing warm again. What

Sincer

With the new year comes resolutions, and each and every year for nearly a quarter of a century Bill Sharkey has resolved:—"To buy the best of foods, to prepare the best of foods, and serve these foods in the best possible way." That Bill has kept faith is attested by his ever growing host of friends and customers from every section of the land. Sharkey's is indeed an asset to the city and attracts to Orlando every week many people new and old who enjoy as they say, the best of foods." If you haven't been in Sharkey's lately, treat yourself and family at Sharkey's today and check up on Bill's New Year's resolution.

If you would feel at home in Jacksonville, the next time you are there drop into the Thomas Jefferson Restaurant on Adams St., just diagonally across from the George Washington. For breakfast, lunch or dinner you will find the food of the best and prices in keeping with 1933. Your visit to this attractive place is enhanced when you readily recognize in the personnel many faces familiar to Orlando people. The genial manager, George Light, is assisted by Mrs. Light in greeting those that enter, while Miss Eva Bailey, hostess, for many years with Sharkey's, will add a word of welcome. A glance to the back you will recognize another familiar face, Durwood Young, pantry steward, who reigns supreme over the many delicacies that go so far to make your meal complete. George Light extends you a special invitation. Just say "Orlando."

Don't tell me you missed the opening of Charleen's Tea House. The food and service, even the atmosphere, was perfect. Some unlucky ones had to be turned away. Better luck next time. At this lovely Tea House guests are served with food of the same quality and character that you would be proud to serve in your own home. In addition to the regular menu Mrs. Baker is glad to arrange for bride luncheons and special dinners without cover charge. Charleen's Tea House. 1385 Orange Ave., Winter Park. Telephone 52 M.

If you want something entirely original and different and yet inexpensive for your bridge prizes, it will pay you to visit the Brownie House Gift Shop, 3000 N. Orange at Orwin Manor. Wait until you see the jig-saw puzzles they have. If you aren't already an addict, you soon will be.

"If it's made of wood—we can make it". Such is the slogan of the Mutual Millwork Company, Inc. located just across the railroad on Jefferson Street. Any work, no matter how large or how small will be executed in quick order at 1933 prices. Phone 4127 for Master Millwork, cypress and hardwood of all descriptions, or a representative will be glad to call and advise with you on your requirements. The Mutual plant is easy to reach and we suggest you drive down today and get an estimate on that work you have delayed already too long.

IF THE SHOE FITS

A joke is a funny thing—sometimes. Last week as well as every week, we run a few jokes for those that really must have them. Now we must confess that we do not originate these hundred or more items that we publish during the year, but follow the line of least resistance, invest two-bits in a College Humor every month and apply the scissors. According to our good friend Tyn Cobb, we are quite adept at this scissors wielding. Another of our good friends, Bill Shakespeare, Al Capone or was it Lydia Pinkham, once said that "all the world's a stage" or something to that effect, and it is quite interesting to note how many players we have as most every joke that is printed seems to fit some one person or group. Our files are replete with signed as well as anonymous protests over this or that item which was run as a harmless, innocent joke. I wonder if the same reaction goes out to the editor of College Humor or is he too far removed to receive the many darts?

TRADE — BARTER — EXCHANGE BIG NEWS OF 1933

Register Your Wants and Talents at Office Now!

There is no need for idle moments, no need for empty larders now according to the National Barter Trade Exchange which opened state headquarters in Orlando last week. The plan is already adopted and working successfully in 147 communities in 30 states of the Union is as simple as the A B C's, merely the orderly process of "trading work for goods" and "trading goods for work". General offices for the Orlando and Central Florida territory are at 218 Church and Main Building, upstairs in the Mayer Arcade, and experienced clerks are on duty from eight in the morning till six each evening to register all requests for barter, trade or exchange. No money is needed here, you merely let your wants be known as well as your service or goods to exchange and the exchange endeavors to strike a trade with someone else that has something to trade. Hundreds of people have been trading on a similar basis for many months but until the opening of a branch of the National Barter Trade Exchange they have had to depend entirely upon their own initiative to make their trades.

Everyone who has anything to trade and who needs something, regardless of its nature—food, furniture, property, services, anything—everything is urged to register their desires today at 218 Church and Main Building.
